WEST PAPUA : THE PACIFIC'S SECRET SHAME

OPEN PUBLIC SEMINAR

Friday 1 August, 6.30-8.30pm and Saturday 2 August, 9am-5pm

Faculty of Law, The University of Auckland
Level 2 (Friday) and Level 3 (Saturday)
9 Eden Crescent, Auckland 1010.

With Keynote speaker Victor Mambor
Chairperson for the Alliance of Independent Journalists (Papua chapter)

- The latest from on the ground in West Papua
- The need for media and International NGO access to West Papua
- NZ's historical and current complicity with Indonesia
- Support for West Papua in Melanesia
- Is West Papua the new East Timor?
- Political panel with representatives from major parties

Other speakers include:
Prof. David Robie (Director, Pacific Media Centre, AUT)
Dr. Elizabeth Stanley (Victoria University of Wellington)
Maire Leadbeater (Human Rights activist)
Paul Bensemann (Independent NZ journalist)
Johnny Blades (Radio NZ journalist) via videolink
Paula Makabory (West Papuan human rights activist)

West Papua: the Pacific's Secret Shame

The event is hosted by the Organising Committee for West Papua Seminar. For more information please contact Maire Leadbeater at maire@clear.net.nz.