Dear Dr Norman

GOVERNMENT COMMUNICATIONS SECURITY BUREAU (GCSB)
COMPLAINT PURSUANT TO s216B, CRIMES ACT 1961: KITTERIDGE
REPORT – 85 OTHER CASES REFERENCED

On 9 April 2013 you wrote to the Commissioner of Police requesting Police look into the additional 85 alleged breaches by the GCSB into illegal interceptions of private communications. The alleged breaches were noted by Ms Rebecca Kitteridge as part of her findings into the review of the GCSB.

The Commissioner responded to your request indicating that the Inspector General: Intelligence and Security (IGIS) had been directed to investigate the matters raised in the 'Kitteridge report' and he intended waiting for the outcome of that inquiry before taking any action.

I write to advise you that the IGIS has reported on this matter and Police have reviewed those findings.

Today you have also received correspondence from Police advising the outcome of the Police investigation into allegations pertaining to Mr Dotcom and Mr van der Kolk. Taking the findings of the Inspector General: Intelligence and Security as referred to above, and the findings of the Police investigation, I am satisfied that a further Police investigation into these additional allegations is not warranted.

If you have any questions please contact the Officer in Charge of the investigation, Detective Superintendent Peter Read.

Yours sincerely

Mike Rusbatch
