Dear Sirs

McCready v Banks: Request for Solicitor-General intervention
Our Ref: SOL115/2464

I refer to my letter of 25 June 2013 in which I advised that I would reconsider my decision not to intervene in the private prosecution of Mr Banks in the event there was a committal for trial.

In light of Mr Banks' committal yesterday, I confirm I am reconsidering whether to take over conduct of the prosecution. I welcome any comment or information to assist me in making my decision. Given the applicable timeframes, in particular the time for filing of an indictment, please provide any comment by 25 October 2013.

Yours sincerely

Crown Law
