

Black Dog Brewery Tasting Notes

Black Dog Experimental Range:

Limited Edition 500ml Brews

Special Agent India Pale 500ml bottle: RRP $10.99 (Gold Medal BGNZA)

ALC VOL 5.6%

On a mission to re-educate your taste buds to what a real IPA can taste like. This dog is smooth on the surface, but he's hiding an undercover hoppy hit. Special Agent is a dual-hopped IPA, made with Nelson Sauvin and Taiheke hops. It's crisp and refreshing, with a piney, resinous character and a hint of passion fruit on the snout. This is your under-cover brother.

Underestimate its flavour and you'll be the one leaving with your tail between your legs.

Brewtus Bolivian Coffee Stout 500ml bottle: RRP $10.99 (Havana Coffee Collaboration)

ALC VOL 5.9%

A cross-bred brew, courtesy of a collaboration between Black Dog Brewery and Havana Coffee Works. This is far from the runt of the litter; this is a brute of a beer with a sophisticated side. A rich and silky stout, dry-hopped with a hefty bag of crushed coffee beans straight from Bolivia and a good dose of Cascade hops to add some extra growl. Best enjoyed with hearty stew or a slab of chocolate cake.

Black Dog Permanent Range:

Six Pack Brews

Dog Father American Pale Ale 6 pack: RRP $20.99

ALC VOL 6.4%

Dog Father dealing, workin the feeling and brewing it fly. It's an all American tang thang. Citra & Amarillo, Damn Son! What a snap on the tongue. This blends out nice and rhyming tight. Stone fruit humin, passionfruit zingn and Amarillo buzzin. It's a full fruit drive by. Rock to that.

Bone Yard India Pale Ale 6 pack: RRP $20.99

ALC VOL 5.9%

Creep around the Bone Yard and hear the old hound wail! This big bad dog is back from the dead, breathing new life into an old IPA style. A real hop hit, with a few phantom flavours, that creep up quietly. Boneyard howls with Waimea, Chinook and Taheke hops that make for a big pale ale, without freaking the sheep so to speak.

Pug Life Extra Pale Ale 6 pack: RRP $20.99

ALC VOL 4.4%

Word up. Got you a real deal Pale Ale with a killa finish. Stone fruits for kicks, malt sweetness for the lovers and a refreshing hop zing for the whole game. This Pug Life starts funky, but when the bitterness drops, it'll have your taste buds popping. How you like me now?
