

Judge's Public Lecture

Catherine David

Contemporary Arab representations

Catherine David

Copyright Foto Bob Goedewegen

Thursday 30 October 6pm

Catherine David, director of the 2009 Lyon Biennial, presents the 2008 Walters Prize judge's lecture.

AUT Lecture theatre WA220 – free entry – see map

Catherine David has worked at the National Museum of Modern Art at the Centre Georges Pompidou (1982-90), the Galerie National du Jeu de Paume (1990-94) and the Witte de With, center for contemporary art in Rotterdam (2002-04).

She is highly regarded for her role as director of documenta X (1994-97) and her acclaimed project Contemporary Arab Representations 1 and 2, produced in association with the Tàpies Foundation (2003). More recently, she was a Fellow of the Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin (2005-06), where she worked towards a project entitled Di/Visions: Culture and politics of the Middle East (2007).

In the spring of 2008 she received the Bard College Award for Curatorial Excellence.

Catherine David is currently chief curator at the Direction des Musées de France (French Museum Board) and has been invited to curate the 2009 Lyon Biennial.

Entry as marked

This lecture is kindly supported by AUT School of Art & Design